

Ulster County Emergency Communications/ Emergency Management

Schools in Ulster County serve students in early education programs through graduate school. Public elementary and secondary schools each have School Safety Plans in place, through the Safe Schools Against Violence in Education Act (Project SAVE) legislation passed by the New York State Legislature and signed into law by Governor Pataki on July 24, 2000.

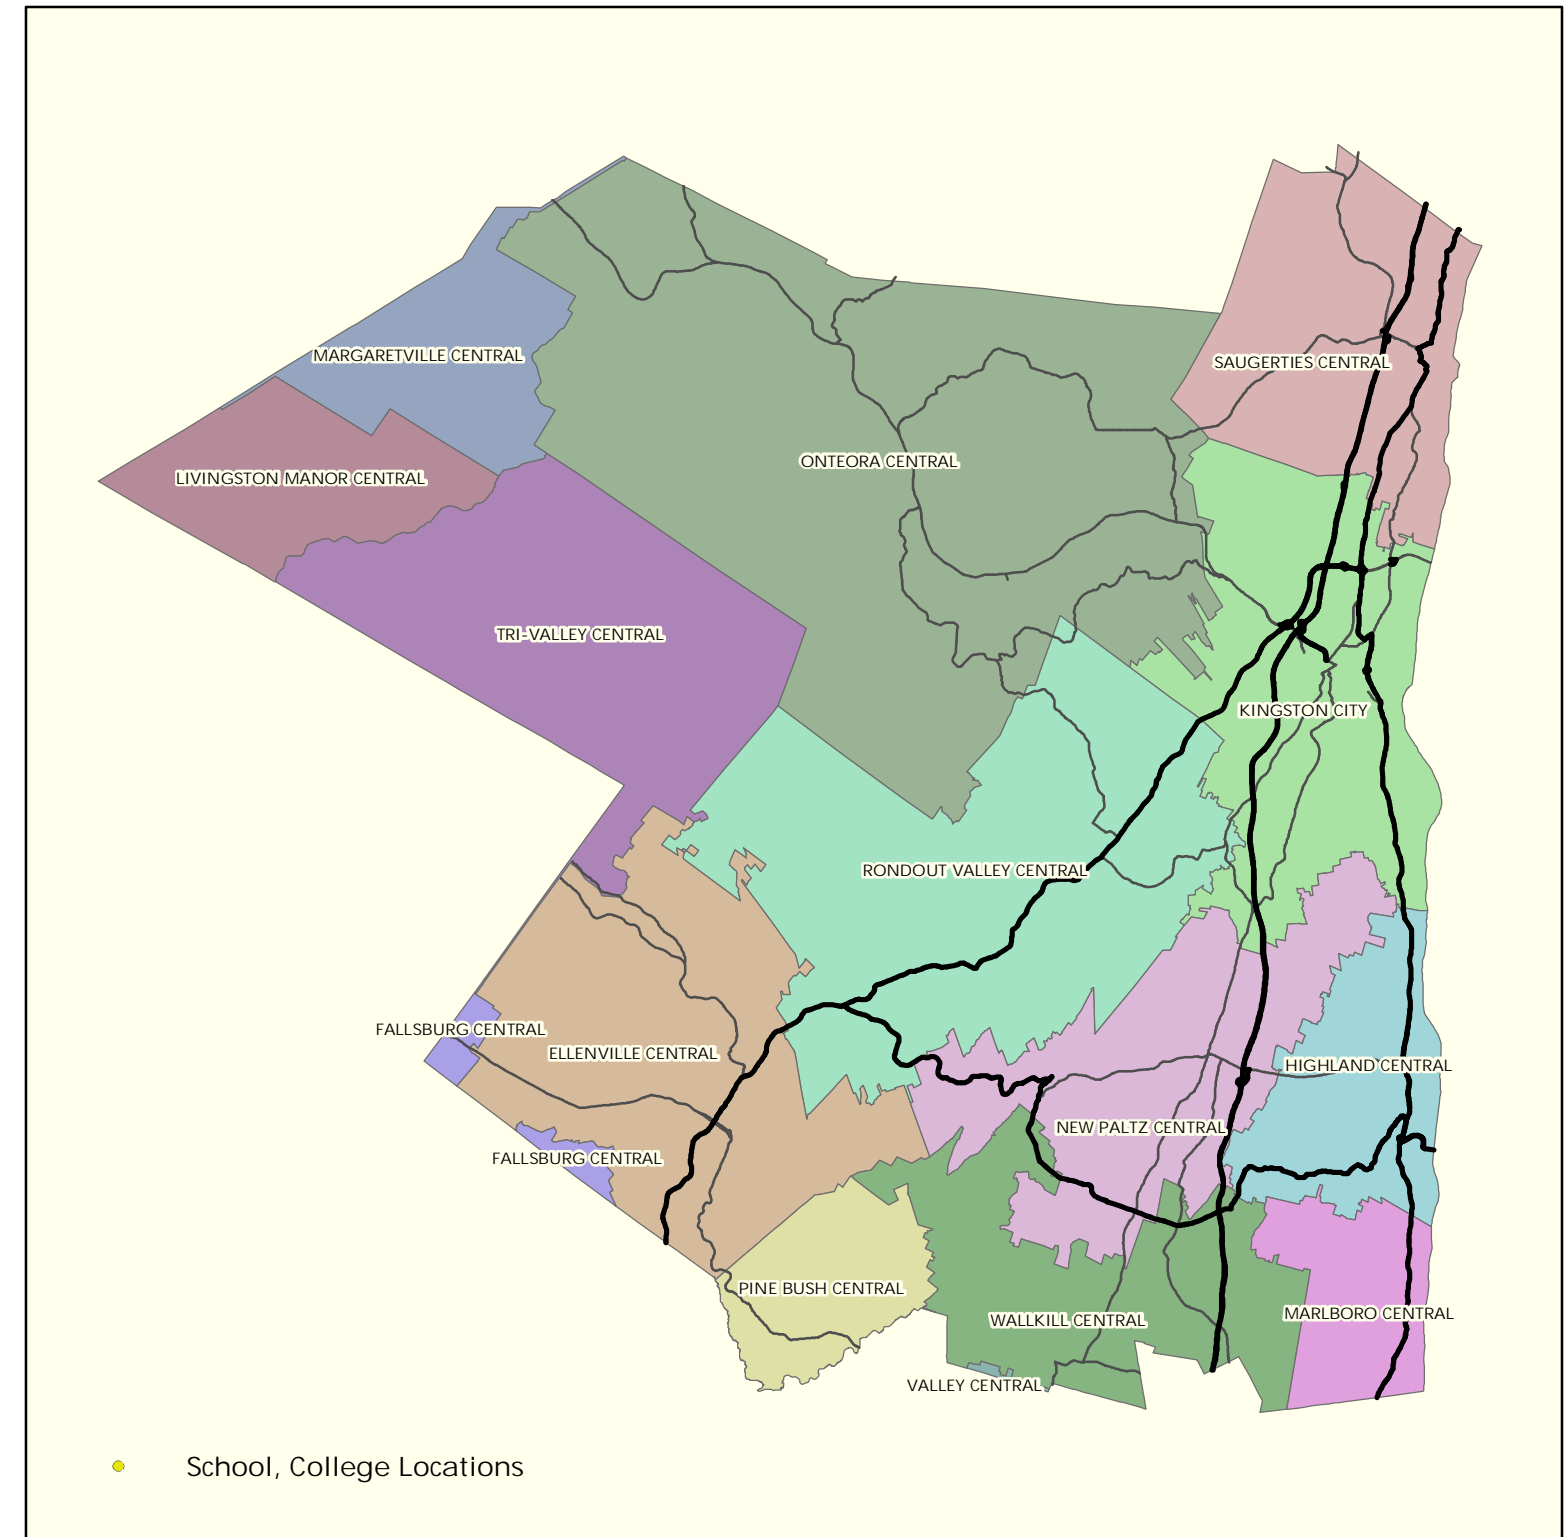

Each District is individually identified in the following maps. Additional information regarding education in Ulster County is available from:
